Our Services:

Recruitment

We offer expert support in talent recruitment and onboarding. Our clients include a broad range of companies operating in the IT, BPO, finance, hotel management, and production industries.

Outplacement

Today's business is highly dynamic, and companies are often forced to reduce their workforce. This scenario is always painful and creates a high risk of reputation damage. Our experts are there to support this process at your business, adding value both to companies and to their employees.

Relocation

We will find the best candidate for your vacancy in countries within and outside the EU.

Work Permits

Radioactive International Recruitment (RIR) is one of the few agencies in the Bulgarian HR market that helps its corporate clients hire highly skilled staff from non-EU countries. This service helps businesses reduce their attrition rates and reduce their costs for ongoing training of new employees.

Startups & Newcomers in Bulgaria

Finding the right staff for your startup can be a daunting challenge. There are many legal and technical issues that take a lot of time and hide risks. As part of Bulgaria's innovative ecosystem, we believe that startups should be supported on their way to developing and launching their products and services. And we are here to support them!

Employer Branding

The role of corporate culture in the recruitment processes is growingly recognized as a critical factor for the success of any business. We support and consult our clients in their overall efforts to attract, hire, and retain their best talent. We share their good practices and inspiring stories.

Organizational Consulting

We offer operational and strategic HR management and overall solutions in recruitment, employee assessment, remuneration, staff administration, motivational studies, and training.

Labour Market Marketing Research and Analysis

Knowing the labour market is equally essential for seasoned employers who are already established in it and are working to keep their positions and for newcomers who are just entering the game.

Career Consultancy

Our portfolio includes the most trending and attractive employers in Bulgaria and abroad, and we want to get you in touch!

We offer career consultancy to anyone willing to find their dream job, including CV reviews, training, and one-on-one sessions ahead of job interviews. This service is absolutely FREE for all candidates!

Add value to your organization and career!

We offer:

- Personalized approach
- An expert team of HR professionals
- Drafting of individual end-to-end marketing strategies
